Programme Against Drugs
September 4, 2018

The NSS volunteers of Saroop Rani Government College for Women, Amritsar organised a massive Programme Against Drugs.

The Programme included-

- meeting for deciding the action plan
- Door-to-door Awareness Programme
- Cycle Rally
- Poster Making competition

In the meeting the Volunteers along with their programme officers decided on the course of action for this programme against drugs. The students argued over the merits of one mode of media over other hoping to find the one most impactful. They also viewed videos on drug abuse and collected data and selected the area for door-to-door campaign.

The door to door awareness programme spanned over an entire day.

The students chose their areas and in groups of threes and fours went house to house giving people the knowledge about drug abuse and advising them over best course while imploring to see past the taboo associated with drugs and help those around them in need.

The cycle rally was open to the other students of the college for participation. Madam Principal Ms. Nutan Sharma flagged off the rally from the college premises. The students circled the area of Rani Ka Bagh in the city, holding banners and shouting slogans. The poster making competition marked the end of the three day Programme aimed at drug abuse awareness. Students from all over the college took part in this competition.
